Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri R.P. Nautiyal-learned counsel for the applicants, learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

Shankar Lal, father of the deceased; Dinesh, brother of the deceased and Surji Devi, mother of the deceased had stated in their deposition that whenever the deceased used to go to her parental house, she never complaint about the cruelty committed by her in-laws. They have stated that she was never treated cruelly. The brother of the deceased had stated that whatever he had stated in 161 Cr.P.C. he stated on the hearsay evidence

Considering the facts and circumstance of the case in totality, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused, Darshan Lal be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the CJM concerned.
